

Abstract

The bachelor thesis about a Quality of life in senior age is about a level and a quality of life of seniors in the Czech republic. The bachelor thesis is focused on a financial situation of czech seniors and possibilities of the quality of life with senior's financial budgets. The word „Quality of life“ means a satisfaction of every person's need. The czech seniors should be able to satisfy their primary basic needs as well as secondary needs which include culture and personal interests.

The bachelor thesis will find out the financial possibilities of seniors, the government fund and the financial expenses of seniors. These informations will be complemented by the interviews with seniors.

The result of this bachelor thesis will be the answer to the question about a quality of life of seniors in the Czech republic. The situation of czech seniors will be compared with another countries.

Keywords: quality of life, seniors, budgets, pension, financial possibilities