

Abstract:

The bachelor degree thesis is titled “The influence of client's spirituality on social functioning”. This bachelor thesis is focusing on whether people without a permanent dwelling perceive the influence of spirituality on their social functioning. The theoretical part deals with the term spirituality, its farther division is specified by the Christian spirituality and the perception of its influence on social functioning. The aim is to answer a research question: “How people without a permanent dwelling attending community meetings perceive the influence of the spirituality on their social functioning?”

Keywords: spirituality, people without a permanent dwelling, social functioning, social perception