

Abstract:

The bachelor's thesis' topic deals with building process and development of selected memorials between 1945-2015 in Czechoslovakia/Czech Republic, that are preserved until nowadays or they are built newly. In this thesis are memorials seen as places of memory, that mediates historical point of views of wider society. This view is not static and “afterlife” of places of memory is dynamic according to political and social changes.