

Annotation

This piece is comparing mother's life quality with regards to returning to work and doing that in different phases of parental leave. Piece is attempting to point out pluses and cons of mother's view on ideal return time to work or children raising for as long as possible.

Comparing traditional family values to a modern one's – that sees career and finance as a main means of family security and as having the main impact on social perception of women life quality on parental leave.