

Abstract

The thesis describes the origins of Norbertines in Brno and establishing of a monastery in Zábřdovice. Author focuses on the medieval stage of the monastery's history. Part of the work is also a reference to the pilgrimage site of Křtiny, whose history is connected with the monastery in Zábřdovice and whose name appears soon after the foundation of the monastery.