

Abstract (in English):

The presented bachelor's thesis deals with the fate and resistance activities of the only member of the special operation Percentage of the František Pavelka. It analyzes Pavelka's connection and subsequent cooperation with the domestic resistance organization Petition Committee, we will remain faithful. All this in the context of the first wave of airdrops sent from the west in the 1941/1942 operational period.