

The aspiration of the author was to present the most influential philosophical and theological opinions of the Austrian philosopher Ferdinand Ebner and track his influence on one of the most important theologians of the Church Czechoslovak Hussite Zdeněk Trtík and on other philosophers and theologians outside the mentioned Church referring to his testament.