

The Thesis analyzes the school system in Bochnia in the context of Austrian school system and its reforms in the 18th and 19th century. It concentrates especially on the influence of the Austrian-Hungarian Education system and its Reforms on the Raise of Education Level in this Part of today Poland and on the Connectivity between the middle Schools in the Higher Schools.