

Annotation

MATYSKOVÁ MARIE

The dissertation (thesis) focuses on problems children might face during the development of their faith in God the Father if their relationship with their own father suffers. It describes stages and obstacles of religious growth, the parents influence on the faith of the child and suggests possible topics for religious education to support these children in faith development.

Keywords:

God

Father

Faith

Education

Catechesis