

Summary

This bachelor thesis is engaged in the possibilities and specifics of woman working in pastoral care. The identity of woman is presented, the definitions of terms pastoral care, parish and laic are explained. The particular areas where woman can assert in Prague's archdiocese are described. Next are introduced experiences of woman working in these areas. There is evaluation of their working, including plus and minus at the end of this bachelor thesis.

Keywords: woman, church, pastoral care, laic, parish.