

Annotation

Pastoral questions of care for parents during their prime of life

The Bachelor dissertation named Pastoral questions of care for parents during their prime of life inspekts and describes the prime of life, family and pastoral work.

At the beginning, the needs of people in their prime of life are described, together with aging of the Czech and European societies. Then follows an analysis of a family from the point of view of a moral theology and subsequent duties of family members as a result. Subsequently pastoral care and the needs of senior members of the society are analysed. After that the dissertation refers to tasks of pastoral care in a family.

At the end the dissertation sums up all the issues and offers possible methods of solution.

Key terms: prime of life, family, pastoral care