

Annotation

GYÖRKE, Milan. Employment of the condemned as a part of management programme in the state prison of Czech republic.

This bachelor work analyses the importance of employee rating for men placed in execution of the punishment imprisonment. Opening chapter shows the work from view of catholic kirk that is represented by the Scriptures and encyclical Joan Pauline II. Laborem Exercens. The second and the third chapter show the work from the view of literary pieces of the native scenes writers. Remaining four chapters deal with execution of a punishment and with the employment of imprisoned people.

Keywords: work, God, state prison, employment, condemned