

Abstract

The basic goal of this Bachelor thesis is to provide dictionary entries which will make part of the forthcoming Portuguese-czech dictionary of brasileirisms. The theoretical part is focused on introducing lexicographical team and characterizing the dictionary, especially the structure of the dictionary entries. The last part of the thesis consists of commentary which is aiming at some of the problems which the author of this thesis faced during the making of his contribution.