

The student will perform a literary-scientific analysis of a collection of autobiographically tuned narratives by Chengnan jiushi by the Taiwanese writer Lin Haiyin (1918-2001). She focuses on the motivic and narrative construction of individual stories, introduces Chengnan jiushi as a prose of "formation" (Bildungsroman / novel of development) and names the unifying principles of the short story cycle as a whole.