

Abstract

The main focus of the bachelor's thesis is the analysis of theatre support in the media during the covid-19 pandemic. It explains important concepts using a descriptive approach to provide an overall insight into the issue. Thus, it defines the basic concepts encountered within the issue that need to be understood before analysing the support of theatres themselves.