

This thesis takes known result about the classification of all boolean clones and extends this result into a lattice of all products of boolean clones modulo minion homomorphism. In the first part of the thesis we look what ordering comes solely from the order on boolean clones and in the second part we show that this describes the whole lattice.