

Abstract:

My diploma work presents a view of the old, the needs of individuals in old age, difficulties that age brings with it. At the same time seeks to outline the life of senior and care of him in terms of social health and pastoral and not separates these two views, but the perception of their interconnectedness and irreplaceable.

Keywords: senior, social care, pastoral care, social work care