

This bachelor labour describes current offer of services for seniors in chosen libraries in the region of Vysocina, especially in the Krajská knihovna Vysočiny (Regional library of Vysočina) in Havlíčkův Brod and in Městská knihovna (Town library) in Třebíč. It is focused on the current status and it describes new trends in the work of librarians with seniors in these libraries. This work deals with basic terminology, outlines the perspectives of growing-old, describes different forms of active aging. Further lists specifics of the work of librarians with the population of seniors, solves problems of education of seniors in libraries. The conclusion of the labour adverts to advantages of memory-training and brain-jogging in libraries.