

The essence of this work is a composition of the little town's Staré Sedliště history since its first written remark till 1945 in some cases till more recent time period. Prime sources were employed especially from regional literature and some archival funds placed at the State district Archives Tachov and the National Archives.

Owners of the manor, their mansion house as well as their contribution to the development of the town are described in full details. This work is also rich in portrayals of town's dwellers day-to-day life, their livelihood, trade and craft, and overall economy situation in the town with accent to the manufacturing concerns and breweries.

Town history is inherently tied with municipality development and principal representatives such as portreeves, mayors, councillors and others. By virtue of information registered in school chronicles it succeeded to involve the development of education system in Staré Sedliště, most of teachers' names, list of local school board members and number of pupils.

This work is completed by the description of an archival file treatment of Archives of the town Staré Sedliště and the creation of an inventory for the archival file. As a part of the inventory is development and history of the archival file former and the usefulness of the archival file for further research actions.