

Abstrakt

SCHWARZENBERK SPONSORED CHURCHES UNDER THE PRINCE JAN ADOLF II. IN THE PERIOD 1833-1888

This diploma work deals with construction of family sponsored churches of Schwarzenberk project office under Jan Adolf II. Especially is orientated at sacral construction connected with dynamic development of estate Český Krumlov. Very important is explaining of creative influence and inspiration of Schwarzenberk's architect Damas Deworezky and Jan Sedláček on new standardized sacral construction. It was compromise between functionality based on principles of static and decor of stylish neogothic style. Then I deal with imaginations of lay and church representatives of personage villages and their influence at new created sacral architecture. I deal with genealogy of family Schwarzenberk, local personage administration and section of the community of estate Český Krumlov. Conclusion and contribution of this diploma work is based on thorough strand prospection of archives funds of family Schwarzenberk and funds of personage offices.