

The title of the submitted bachelor theses in the field of study History of Art is “Baroque painting of religious buildings in Veseli nad Moravou”. The theses present baroque paintings of religious buildings in the 18th century in the city Veseli nad Moravou as well as its cultural and artistic flowering. The main aim of this paper is summary and description of the painting religious works of three different churches and personal confrontation of church decoration from available materials.