Abstract

The Bachelor's thesis named the Recent Policy for the Integration of Third-country Nationals Legally Residing within the Territory of the Czech Republic replies to the question on a conformity of the recent integration policy with Christian social-ethic criteria. Using the perceive-consider-act method thesis analyzes the integration policy in synchronic and diachronic contexts and its impacts on a life of foreigners in Czech society. Afterwards Christian social-ethic approaches are searched in relation to migration matters. Finally Christian social-ethic reflection on updated policy for the integration of foreigners is provided and suggestions for development of the integration policy are proposed.
