The Thesis "Analysis of the Christology and Soteriology by Josef Pospíšil" is analyzing the book "De Deo Incarnato" written by the famous theology from the turn of the 18th century, by Josef Pospíšil. This period is dated before the IInd Vatican Council. The method applied by Josef Pospíšil to dogmatic theology is overcome today – today's theological disciplines fade into one another.

The Thesis is split into historical part, where is presented the author and the theological background of his life. The next part is devoted to analysis of the Christology and Soteriology, where is described how author works with auditus fidei and intellectus fidei.
