

Annotation

Bachelor's work on the topic „Social work with people with Alzheimer's disease is devoted to problems with Alzheimer's dementia, her diagnosis. This work devote care especially to therapy of Alzheimer's disease and social work with klient, who suffer from this disease. In the introduction are defined some important concepts for social work. This work is devoted to another sorts of dementia for better understanding this problems. Practical part is devoted to test MMSE, by means of this is dementia diagnosed.