

Abstract

This work deals with the Czechoslovak flyers during the Second World War. Work is considered to be a historical-sociological study, the main goal is to compile model of typice Czechoslovak flyer during the second word war. Work is primarily based on documents of VHA and ABS, secondary sources are Czech literature and foreing literature translated into Czech language.

Key words

The Second World War, Czechoslovak Fleyers. Czechoslovak Air Force, historical-sociological Studies, Social Stratification.