

The work describes the life of the parishes in Lysá nad Labem and Milovice term of demographis changes, changes in the composition of the population, changes in kontent and style of pastoral work and he history of parishes. It describes the involvement of laity in pastoral work, the development of cultural and social life in the parishes over the years 1985-2006 with respekt to charles in society dutiny that period and in connection with the departure of Societ troops from our territory.