Abstract

Czech new age society is very complicated organism regardless of a country or type of locality we want to study it. In case that I try to contain it totally with the most probability I wouldn't be able to manage with size of large monograph. Step by step I had achieved to choice of point of view concentrated on private ownership of immovable property.

This dissertation is taking as a target two things. At first it will try to express constitution of the city Strakonice and it's manor farm estate. Next effort to make an analysis of Strakonice inhabitant's society and not far surrounding's society. At this mass of people I'll try to determine part of Strakonice's elites and some difficulties fo this point of view by using knowledge of their immovable property.
