

Abstract

This bachelor thesis deals with translation of a French phytotherapy book Ces plantes qui nous veulent du bien by Marie Borrel. In the second part, applied translational analysis, translation methods and typology of selected translation techniques are explained.