

Abstrakt (English):

This diploma thesis called „Expatriot Communities and their journal Nová Doba“ deals with the issue of emigration to Argentina. In the first chapters mentions causes of the emigrations, legislations of the czech emigration and first settlement by the Czechoslovak expatriates. It provides informations on Czech expatriates and their expatriates associations. The practical part of this thesis was elaboration of their journal called Nová Doba. The journal is divided into several sections, which are processed in detail. It also includes analysis of advertisements, invitations and advertisements that appear in the magazine New Time.

Key words:

emigration, expatriot communities, print, journal called „Nová Doba“

