

The furniture design program is an application, which allows users to design cases in user friendly graphical interface. Designed cases conform to user's requirements. On the basis of these requirements and the list of available materials, program computes the optimal cutting plan. The application also allows to control the user's material store. Generated cutting plans can be edited and also printed. The list of component parts, necessary for designed case mounting, can be generated. This list can be printed.