

The BA thesis is composed of two main parts – the Czech translation of selected chapters of publication by Robert Blais: Les rêves, messagers de l'âme. The text is dealing with dreams, their interpretation and symbolism. The second part contains a commentary, composed of a translation analysis of the original and it also deals with individual translation problems and their solutions.