

Abstract

The Bachelor thesis deals with Financial Evaluation of Investment Projects. The thesis is divided into two parts. Theoretical part consists on methods of evaluation of investment projects, market analysis, marketing strategies, and risks. Second part, the practical part, is the application of methods and procedures (described in theoretical part) to the fictitious coffee shop called Cimra. The practical part deals with investment description, financial planning, measuring the enterprise value and risks analyses.