

We present basic properties and duality results between inexact and generalized linear programs. In addition we describe linear semi-infinite programs in connection with the programs above mentioned.