

Bachelor thesis Moses in the Quran: Depiction of the Prophet Moses in the Quran Narrative and a Comparison with the Biblical Parallels is focused on the character of the prophet Moses, who is the most often mentioned individual in the Quran, holy book of Islam. In the beginning it deals with prophecy and prophets in the Islamic and Jewish tradition. Next, it analyses Quranic verses concerning the prophet Moses with help from the commentaries of Moslem scholars. This thesis also follows Biblical parallels to Quranic passages, especially in the book of Exodus, and lays out especially the differences emerging between both. Last but not least the thesis presents also specific Quranic motives that have no parallels in the Biblical text whatsoever.
