

In my thesis I have focused on celebrating holidays of the Macedonian nation. The first part of the thesis is a historical introduction, it deals with general definition, characterization of ethnic composition of Macedonia's population, geographic definition and also its historical transformations; it deals with development of Christianity in the territory of Ilinden Macedonia. The text includes also my own observations from the village of Ilinden.