

Summary

The bachelor work "Problematic situations connected with position of school psychologist" lies within the field of school psychology and it is focused on position of school psychologist in professional network with another school participants, and on problem situations which this position could bring. The aim of this work is present these problematic situations in practice of school psychologists and try to find their own possible ways out of these situations and propose some solutions. Content of this work is divided into theoretical and practical part. The issue of theoretical part is knowledge base connected to work school psychologist profession – from introduction of branch specific terms of "school psychology" and term "school psychologist", through definition of school psychologist's profession and another consulting school professions up to school psychologist's relations network, where the sensitive points can be found. This part of the work is focused on the knowledge about problematic situations, in which the school psychologist can be confronted in relations with another school participants. The practical (research) part is issued to experiences of school psychologists in Prague. Realized research followed the theoretical knowledges which are mentioned above. This part of work was made as interviews with school psychologists. The questions were mainly focused to find out problematic situations the school psychologist can face and finding their personal ways out of these situations and their practical solutions.